Garages, too!*

Keeps your garage cool and bug-free!

Just imagine - natural cooling can greatly reduce your energy costs, and at the same time you've gained a "bonus room" for you and your family to enjoy.

The SKEET'R BEAT'R System is ideal for single or double garage doors, front entry areas, and just about any open-air space you would like to convert to a bug-free environment.

The smooth-operating motor raises and lowers the screen automatically. When it's up, the screen is hidden from view and protected from the elements. When down, the double rubber flap at the bottom seals out the "creepy crawlies" from your yard, and allows the cooling breezes through. Don't let your car turn your garage into a hot-box...use the SKEET'R BEAT'R System to create more space in your home!
